ROBOTECH™

85 Episodes 30 minutes

THE STORY

2009 AD. The earth has been invaded by a fleet of giant alien spaceships capable of destroying the entire planet in a split second. The only hope for survival lies in the secrets of ROBOTECH, an ancient science which has created powerful Robotic weapons systems and interstellar spacecrafts. A mysterious unmanned Robotech Space Battle Fortress crashed into the Earth several years earlier — it contained information which the scientists of United Earth Defense Forces used to develop their own Robotech force. However, unfamiliar with the alien technology, the crew of this reconditioned Space Battle Fortress face the nearly impossible task of defending not only their own lives, but the fate of the entire world.

Some Plot Summaries

Episode 2: Countdown Rick Hunter is forced by circumstance to become a fighter pilot in the intergalactic war being waged over the secrets of Robotechnology. He rescues the lovely Lin Minmae from death at the hands of alien invaders and learns the frightening truth behind the construction of the Robotech transformable Veritech Fighter. Lt. Fokker, Rick's best friend, battles aliens in the streets of Macross City.

Episode 5: Transformation Stranded deep in outer space in the gigantic Robotech Space Battle Fortress, Captain Gloval and the crew of SDF-1 make a decision to alter the physical shape of their vessel. This transformation turns the sleek Battle Fortress into a gigantic Robot nearly one mile long. This new Attack Fortress battles the alien invaders in deadly combat.

Episode 9: Goodbye, Mars The Robotech Space Battle Fortress reaches Mars Base Sara in the hope of replenishing its badly depleted food supplies. What these Robotech defenders find waiting for them on the barren planet is a carefully orchestrated ambush organized by their alien enemies. A tremendous battle takes place which leaves Mars completely destroyed.

Episode 15: Homecoming After nearly a year in deep space, the SDF-1 returns to Earth. Captain Gloval and Lisa Hayes make a report to the United Earth Defense Forces asking for a truce in this intergalactic war. They are told that they must leave the Earth and take the secrets of Robotech with them. As far as the people of Earth are concerned, the Space Battle Fortress never existed.
